

Jessica V. Toussaint Long Bio

Jessica V. Toussaint embodies the essence of empowerment and leadership. As an influencer, motivational speaker, coach, and change agent, she touches lives on both individual and organizational levels, fostering holistic success and nurturing future leaders through her various endeavors. Her commitment to guiding individuals to align their purpose with their passion underscores her dedication to seeing her clients thrive.

Born to Haitian immigrant parents, Jessica's unique cultural heritage and life experiences have ingrained in her the importance of resilience and the belief that with courage, anything is possible. Guided by her Christian faith, her work—infused with warmth, enthusiasm, and the spirit of triumph—encourages individuals to see beyond their challenges and empowers them to transcend barriers and embrace their own stories.

Her role as the Founder and President of Bridge to Promise, Inc. reflects her deep-rooted commitment to youth development and empowerment, particularly for underserved communities. Through this organization, Jessica provides invaluable coaching and support, equipping young people with the skills and confidence needed to navigate life successfully.

Jessica's impressive involvement in nonprofits such as The New York Call, the State of Black Long Island Equity Council of the Urban League of Long Island, Perfecting Faith Church, and The Excelling Church demonstrates her unwavering dedication to community service and advocacy.

As the CEO of Dream Encore Enterprises, Jessica leverages her passion for philanthropy and a decade's worth of experience in the nonprofit sector to help organizations strengthen their fundraising efforts. She develops personalized messaging, programs, systems, and strategies tailored to each organization's unique needs, optimizing their operations and ensuring their sustainability.

Her educational background in Special Education and a Master's in Business Administration, coupled with certifications in Organizational and Community Leadership and Success and Executive Coaching, illustrates her multifaceted approach to leadership and empowerment.

As a seasoned speaker and facilitator, Jessica has spent years inspiring audiences of all ages to step into their greatness. Whether through one-on-one coaching sessions or dynamic public speaking engagements, her message is clear: Own your journey, invest in your growth, and greatness will follow.

Jessica is also an author, and her writing, including the empowering phrase “BABYYY, YOU GOT THIS!”, resonates as a call to action for personal transformation. Her works inspire and touch the hearts of those seeking joy and authenticity in their lives.

Driven by her love for people and her faith in God, Jessica leads by example, inspiring others through her actions and dedication to service. Her work has garnered recognition in various publications, further solidifying her reputation as a beacon of inspiration and positive change in her community and beyond.

As Jessica continues to write and coach, expect a series of works that will guide, inspire, and celebrate the human spirit in all its facets. Jessica V. Toussaint is just getting started.
